

Publication Permission for Student Photos or Videos

St. Aloysius Academy has chosen to establish the following guidelines when including photos and videos of students in school printed materials, on the Academy's website and/or social media.

1. Decisions on publishing student pictures (still or video) and student work are based on signed permission of the parent/guardian (with the exception that student names and photos may be placed in the school yearbook without parent permission).

2. Use of student names on the Academy's webpages and social media will be limited to first name and last name initial.

3. Photos and videos of crowds, audiences, teams and musicians taken at public events (i.e. assemblies, athletics, and performances) may include your child in group pictures.

I DO give permission for my child's photo or video clip to be reprinted and/or used in the Academy's materials, brochures, news releases, newsletters, on Academy website and social media.

I DO NOT give permission for my child's photo or video clip to be reprinted and/or used in the Academy's materials, brochures, news releases, newsletters, on Academy website and social media. An exception could be group photos without student names listed.

This form shall remain in effect for the duration of the child's time at St. Aloysius Academy unless notified otherwise by a parent/guardian. Such notification is to be directed to the Academy principal.
