Summer Music and Arts Camp

St. Aloysius Academy's Reach for the Stars summer camp is a creative arts opportunity open to boys and girls entering Grades 2-8. Students will experience and enjoy Music, Drama, and Art through a creative and child-centered approach. Throughout the week, students will create their own theatrical production and participate in a final performance to conclude their camp experience.

DAILY SCHEDULE

- 9:00—MORNING ASSEMBLY/MEETING
- 9:30—MUSIC
- 10:30—SNACK BREAK
- 10:45—DRAMA
- 12:00—LUNCH AND RECESS
- 1:00—ART
- 2:00—SHOW STAGING AND REHEARSAL
- 3:00—DISMISSAL

Students are required to bring their own lunch each day, and a snack will be provided each morning if desired.

STAFF

- MS. CECILIA BEATTY, DRAMA
- MR. JOHN KLINE, ART

MUSIC

Students will have the opportunity to work in small groups and individually to play and create their own music. Students will be combined according to ability, with the aim of preparing their own songs, learning new music, and performing as part of the theatrical production at the end of the week.

DRAMA

Students will be exposed to various forms of theater while learning acting skills and vocal technique. In addition, students will create and write their own scripts, as well as plan and participate in the Friday performance at the conclusion of the camp week.

ART

Students will work with various materials to create unique original artwork. In addition, they will also work to create items for the Friday performance. All students will be encouraged to explore their individuality and imagination, which will be displayed in an Art Exhibit during the Friday performance.

FRIDAY PERFORMANCES

All camp students' creative efforts and talents culminate in a Friday performance at the end of each week.

Week One

Friday, June 16 at 11:30am

(Dismissal 12:00 PM)

Week Two

Friday, June 23 at 11:30am

(Dismissal 12:00PM)

We encourage and invite all families to attend this all-inclusive camp performance and art exhibition in St. Aloysius Academy's Katharine Drexel Hall.

Immediately following both Friday performances, students will be dismissed from camp.
